[redacted] I believe the program, now in its eleventh year, has been very successful.

I would be very pleased if you could be our guest speaker here at CIA Headquarters. I would suggest either 16 October or 20 November 1984 but would be happy to accommodate your schedule if neither date is convenient. Our program normally consists of a lecture of approximately 30 to 40 minutes, followed by a 20 to 30 minute question period. Lectures are usually scheduled from 2:00-3:15 p.m. Your thoughts about nuclear disarmament, the space program, the Government and the media, or any related topic of your choice, would be of keen interest to our audience.

I hope you are able to accept this invitation. [redacted] our Dean of Conferences, will be pleased to discuss any aspect of the arrangements with your staff. She can be reached on [redacted]
